

mgr Joanna Gjorgievska

Akademia Humanistyczno- Ekonomiczna w Łodzi

Development of the System of Working with Talented Pupils at Primary Schools in the Republic of Macedonia

The article presents the diagnosis of the nowadays state of education of talented pupils at primary schools in Macedonia. Talented pupils' problems and work with those children are new issues for the education system in the country. The problem of identification and support of abilities of talented pupils and some teaching methods are described in the article. The education area of talented pupils is one of those, which should be reformed. Now it is the priority for educational policy in the Republic of Macedonia especially in the aspect of acceding to the European Union. The conclusion and recommendations for working with talented pupils at primary schools in Macedonia are placed at the end of the article.