The rules of the didactics of creativity

Summary

The didactic rules are general norms for teacher in order to help him to fulfill the learning outcomes. Didactic rules, in spite of many sound modifications, keep their immutability.

The classical didactic rules are compass for the didactic process during e.g. the arts lessons. Conducting this kind of classes should be based on the rules of the didactics of creativity. Art teachers declares knowledge the rules of the didactics of creativity however they do not take it into account during work (based on the analysis of 48 lesson outline).
